Horace A. Moses Scout Reservation

The Horace A. Moses Scout Reservation is located on 1,200 acres of land surrounding Russell Pond in the foothills of the Berkshires. The Moses Scout Reservation is home to Boy Scout and Cub Scout Resident Camps as part of the Western Massachusetts Council. To find out more about each camp, click on the links to the right.

The camp is also available for weekend camping by Scouting units during much of the school year. Cabins, shelters, and tenting are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

3. Click “Add Trip”

4. Enter applicable information in the resulting popup to give us information about your trip to the Moses Scout Reservation. You may login and update this information up to the day you arrive at camp. Please ensure that you update the number of youth and adults prior to your arrival. Click “Add Trip” once you are finished.
5. Click “Add/View Reservations” to add or change facilities you will be using during your trip. These include cabins, campsites, program equipment, and day-use facilities such as the pavilion or dining hall.

6. Click “Add Reservation”. Once you make your selections you will be able to manage them from this screen.
7. Select the desired facility type from the dropdown menu as shown.

8. Select your desired facility from the list. A red “X” or grey square indicates that the facility has been previously booked. A green check mark indicates that the facility is available for booking.

9. Verify the number of youth and adults utilizing the reservation, select the start and end date of your reservation, and click “Save Reservation.”
10. If you would like to add additional reservations to your trip (multiple cabins or camping sites, program equipment, etc.) click “Add Reservation.”
If you have finished making your selections, click “Checkout”. Please note that it is council policy to pay in full for your rental at the time of booking. Refunds will be handled on an individual basis.
